

Our residents' security is our top priority. We're aware of the incident at (property address). We are actively working with the proper authorities to resolve the situation as quickly as possible. We ask that our residents take proper steps to ensure their safety. We will update everyone as the situation progresses.